Open Access:

Open access scopes refers to the referring doctor's preference to arranging the gastroscopy and/or colonoscopy. As a referring doctor, if you would simply like the scope performed without an initial consultation then please tick the box indicating open access. This does NOT mean that Dr Nathan Connelly will not follow up the patient if that is what is required, it simply allows the patient to book in the procedure that they are comfortable to have, on the advice of the referring doctor.

Contraindications to Open Access:

- Greater than 75 years of age
- BMI greater than 40
- Any major heart, lung or kidney disease or complications
- Is taking warfarin or clopidogrel (plavix/ iscover)
- Type I Diabetes Mellitus
- Type II Diabetes Mellitus or on insulin
- Any history of anaesthetic reaction or sedation issues
